OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

November 11, 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As you all know, the State of Illinois has entered into law the recognition of same-sex unions as marriages. The Church was part of the public debate, as you also know. We tried to explain that this is not primarily a religious issue, since marriage comes to us from nature as the union of a man and a woman, long before Christ walked the earth or the state came into being.

Nevertheless, there will be consequences for the Church and society that will become clearer as the law is used to sue for discrimination. The law has made some gays and lesbians happy, and that is not a bad thing in itself. The law, however, is bad law because it will contribute over the long run to the further dissolution of marriage and family life, which are the bedrock of any society. The Church will therefore continue and strengthen her ministry to families. We have lived with bad laws before, and we will do our best to adjust to this one for the sake of social harmony.

One of the consequences for our religion is already evident in the misuse of Pope Francis' words, spoken last summer, about our attitude toward an individual gay person who has asked God for forgiveness. The Pope was not speaking about approving gay marriage. To use his words against his teaching, as they were used on the floor of the State House of Representatives on November 5, is less than intellectually honest.

We are called, by reason of our belief that every person is made in God's image and likeness, to love and respect all of our brothers and sisters, without exception. But we express this respect within the context of our belief in how God has made us and made the world. This belief and this love is the basis of our joy in living the Catholic faith with integrity of mind and heart.

I thank you for your life of faith. God bless you and those you love.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Gather

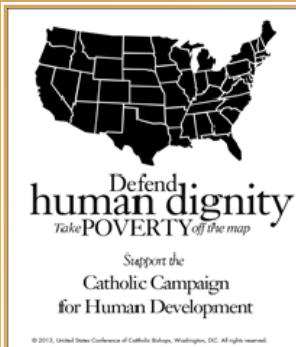

© iStockphoto.com/ dlewis33

This is the time of year when families begin to gather. Thanksgiving is coming, followed by all the many celebrations of Christmas and New Year. Here are a few tips on how best to gather with your extended family: Be a little more welcoming, a little more understanding. Be a little more forgiving and a lot more compassionate. Ask questions about what others care about and then listen more than you talk. Tell the guests at least one reason you are grateful they are in your life. Before you eat, reflect and pray together. Families are often on their best behavior when guests are present. So remember what Jesus said, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." Honor your guests as you would Jesus. —Tom McGrath

Did you know the Progress Center of Independent Living is helping numerous individuals in your area? The Progress Center of Independent Living is making a difference in your community by trusting in the Disability Rights Movement and helping the disabled achieve their self-determined goals through offering the same freedom, rights, and civil liberties as everyone else. PCIL is one of the many CCHD grantees helping to empower low-income persons to help themselves and transform their city. This November 23rd and 24th, join the millions of generous Chicago Catholics and support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development to help fund more remarkable organizations. Please visit: ChicagoPeaceAndJustice.org/CCHD for more information. "The measure of the greatness of a society is found in the way it treats those most in need, those who have nothing apart from their poverty." Pope Francis

Patient endurance will see you through to the end. God will give you the wisdom and the words to speak. What is holding you back from a wholehearted "yes"? (Luke 21:5-19)

2013 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

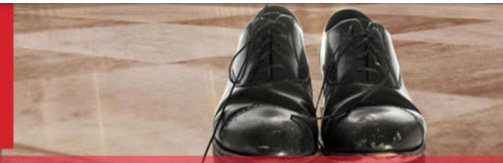

"Love Never Fails!" 1 Cor 13:8

Each year, thousands of households throughout the Archdiocese support the Annual Catholic Appeal. Their gifts are given to help our neighbors in Cook and Lake Counties and around the world.

Just one more pledge billing will be sent before the conclusion of the 2013 Annual Catholic Appeal of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Many thanks to those of you who have completed your pledge payments.

Each gift, when combined with the gifts of thousands of other parishioners throughout the Archdiocese, makes a very real difference in the ability of the Archdiocese to provide vital ministries and services. Thank you again for your support.

WHO WILL FILL THESE SHOES?

REGISTER FOR "WHO WILL FILL THESE SHOES" EVENT AT MUNDELEIN SEMINARY - FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2013

Fr. Robert Barron and Cardinal George are hosting this exciting vocational event at Mundelein Seminary. The event is intended for young men between the ages of 16-35 to help them learn more about the priesthood and how to go about discerning God's call.

All men attending the event must register by visiting the Vocation Office website: www.ChicagoPriest.com

"By working together on this important initiative, it is my hope that every young man with a vocation to be a priest will hear the Lord speaking through him through our invitation and will have the courage to respond." - Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.

Needed, Gently Used or New Winter Coats!

Every week many men and women are deported from Chicago or released from the Homeland Security Building downtown, ill prepared to deal with the cold Chicago winter, often times only wearing t-shirts, shorts and sandals.

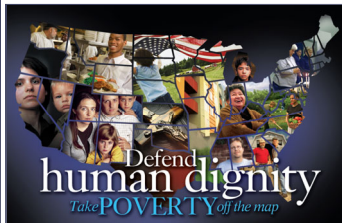

As a parish community, please consider participating in our Coats from the Heart program to donate men's small or medium size coats (except fur and leather) to alleviate the physical suffering of our immigrant brothers and sisters. The coats will be picked up by our office staff and given away the same week.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Sr. Lisa at (312) 534-8104 or lpolega@archchicago.org.

Next week's Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty throughout America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With a tradition of improving education, housing, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Defend human dignity. Take poverty off the map. Please give to the CCHD Collection.

Odwiedziny

Weszliśmy w taki czas w ciągu roku, kiedy rodziny zaczynają się odwiedzać. Nadchodzą Święta Dziękczynienia, a zaraz po nich, rozpoczynają się różnego rodzaju celebracje związane z Bożym Narodzeniem i Nowym Rokiem. Poniżej podaję kilka rad, jak w najlepszy sposób zachowywać się podczas spotkań z dalszą rodziną: bądź odrobinę bardziej otwarty, trochę bardziej wyrozumiały. Bądź trochę bardziej skłonny do przebaczenia i dużo bardziej współczujący. Pytaj o zainteresowania i zaangażowania innych i więcej słuchaj, niż mów. Powiedz swoim gościom, dlaczego jesteś wdzięczny za ich obecność w twoim życiu, potwierdź to przynajmniej jednym przykładem. Pomódlcie się i znajdźcie kilka chwil na wspólną refleksję przed posiłkiem.

Zwykle, podczas wizyt składanych przez gości, rodziny zachowują się najlepiej, jak tylko potrafią. Dlatego pamiętaj to, co powiedział Jezus: „Tam, gdzie dwaj, albo trzech gromadzą się w imię moje, ja jestem pośród nich”. Okaż szacunek swoim gościom tak, jak okazałbyś go samemu Jezusowi. —Tom McGrath

Thank You for Your Support and Generosity!

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. Zbigniew Kurowski, owner of Pulaski Polish Deli and Bakery, for sponsoring our Fall Dance in the Parish of St. Priscilla. The sponsorship consisted of the donation of delicious food that all participants of the dance enjoyed (tasty sausage, ham, beef, cheese, stew, borscht, pastries, etc). All of these treats were given to us for free. As Pastor, I would also like to thank you for sponsoring our Scouts. May the Good Lord reward the liberality and generosity of which we in the Parish of St. Priscilla experienced on various occasions. We recommend and invite all our parishioners to try some tasty meats at Pulaski Polish Deli and Bakery.

Pragnę wyrazić słowa serdecznego podziękowania dla Pana Zbigniewa Kurowskiego, właściciela Pulaski Polish Deli and Bakery, za sponsorowanie naszej Jesiennej Zabawy w Parafii Św. Prysylli. Sponsorowanie to polegało na donacji smacznego jedzenia, które wszystkim uczestnikom Zabawy bardzo smakowało (smaczna kiełbasa, szynka, polędwica, ser, bigos, barszcz czerwony, paszteciki itp). Wszystkie te smakołyki zostały nam podarowane gratis. Jako proboszcz parafii, dziękuję także za sponsorowanie naszej grupy Harcerzy. Niech dobry Bóg wynagrodzi szcudroblliwość i hojność jakiej my w parafii Św. Prysylli doświadczamy z różnych okazji. Wszystkim naszym parafianom polecamy smaczne wędliny w Pulaski Polish Deli and Bakery.

CAPITAL RENOVATION COLLECTION

Without all of your help throughout the past few years that we have had this special collection, there are many projects that would not be possible at our parish. Your support is the energy that keeps St. Priscilla vibrant! Thank you so much for your generous donations!

The donations reported in today's bulletin are from November's Capital Improvement Collection.
